The Southern Churches.

The Evening Post makes a summary of the last month's progress in the matter of reconstruction of the Southern Churches, from which we take a few extracts of interest:

THE METHODISTS.

The most cheering news concerning the progress of anti-slavery churches in the South comes from East Tennessee. The newly constituted Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church increases rapidly in membership, although the Southern Methodist Church intends to contest every inch of the ground. In one presiding elder's district six hundred members have joined the church since June. Many feel confidence that in less than five years the Methodist Episcopal Church will be the Methodist Church in East Tennessee.

The prospects in Eastern Kentucky are also favorable. The eighteen members of the Kentucky Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, who in September united themselves with the Methodist Episcopal Church, are at work, and from several places satisfactory progress is reported. The loyal people of the strong Union counties in Eastern Kentucky want Union churches, and will not remain much longer in church communion with the friends of the slave power.

In Western Kentucky the condition of affairs is less favorable. The Louisville Conference of the Southern Methodist Church recently held its annual meeting at Russelville, when a series of resolutions was adopted, pledging the members of the Conference to stand by the Southern Methodist Church in prosperity and adversity, and endorsing the address of the Southern bishops. Only one member of the Conference made a strong Union speech, but the great majority was in favor of the resolutions. Bishop Kavanagh, of Kentucky, expressed a hope that reunion might take place in future, but did not think it advisable at present. One member, formerly John Morgan's chaplain, said he never would unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church—never!

The Southern Methodist congregations in Missouri, in West Virginia, and in the eastern counties of (old) Virginia, are greatly divided on the reunion question, and in many cases the law is appealed to to decide which of the two parties may carry the church property with it. But in all these States the Methodist Episcopal Church is advancing in the territory of the Southern church.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

The Old School Presbyterian Church is likely to lose a large portion of those members who are displeased with the loyal and anti-slavery deliverances of the General Assemblies since 1861. This class of members have been all through the war in greater sympathy with the Presbyterians of the slave states than with the majority of the last five General Assemblies. Now, when the war no longer prevents them from speaking out their sentiments and following their pro-slavery affinities, they begin to assume a defiant attitude toward their General Assembly, and openly declare that, unless the latter recedes from the position taken since the beginning of the war, they will separate.

The lead in this movement has been taken by the Presbytery of Louisville, which, at its recent meeting, ordered money for domestic missions no longer to be sent to the church board at Philadelphia, but to be paid to a committee of the Presbytery, and expended by it. They also cut loose from all the other boards of the church, except the Board of Foreign Missions. They offered their sympathy and help to the ministers in Missouri who refuse to take the oath of loyalty. They declared their purpose to treat with contempt the action of the General Assembly in regard to the examination of ministers coming from the Southern States, and not to obey or enforce the Assembly's order in regard to ministers who have fled, or been sent by civil or military authority, beyond the jurisdiction of the United States, on account of their disloyalty. They finally signed a "declaration and a testimony against the erroneous and heretical doctrines and practices which have obtained and been propagated in the Presbyterian Church in the United States during the last five years." In this "declaration and testimony," which has been widely circulated as a pamphlet, they charge the General Assembly with apostacy from the true Christian church by its deliverances on the questions of loyalty and slavery, and call a convention (time and place to be designated hereafter), either to secure the reform of the apostate church or to prepare for separation.

At the Synod of Kentucky, which met at Louisville on October 12, the Rev. Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge made a powerful attack upon the conduct of the majority of the Louisville Presbytery, and offered a paper declaring the men who signed the "declaration and testimony" to be "unqualified, unfit and incompetent" ever to sit in any Presbyterian Church court.—This paper, after a very animated discussion, was voted down by one hundred and two against twenty-five. The Kentucky Presbyterians are not alone in this opposition to the majority of the General Assembly, but the action already taken this spring by the Synod of Missouri have already drawn other bodies in their ground; and it is believed that other Synods on the border States may do so likewise. Both Synods, however, passed resolutions not to separate from the General Assembly of the United States.

These movements are, of course, a great encouragement to the southern Presbyterians, whose General Assembly will meet in December, and will make strenuous efforts to drive northern preachers and ministers from southern territory. The only place in the seceded states where thus far anti-slavery Presbyterianism has gained a firm footing is in East Tennessee. There three Presbyteries have now been reorganized in connection with the New School Presbyterian Church, and are all reporting progress. These three Presbyteries constitute the Synod of Tennessee, which began its first meeting on October 12. The proceedings of the Synod report considerable progress, especially in the re-establishment of schools and academies. Fifteen ministers and twenty-one elders were present.

THE BAPTISTS.

The disaffection of the southern Baptists toward their brethren in the North seems to continue unabated. Only in the border states the territory of the northern associations gradually extends. In Missouri, where the majority of the old Baptist ministers and congregations remain in union with the southern associations, a state association of the loyal and anti-slavery Baptists, who are in connection with the northern societies, has this year been organized, and has recently held its first meeting at Hannibal. The influx of immigration into Missouri from the free states is soon to add steadily and largely to the membership of this organization.

The Philadelphia Baptist Association at its recent meeting received a Baptist church of Wilmington, Delaware. A Baptist church of Wheeling, West Virginia, from the pastorate of which about eight years ago the Rev. Mr. Malcom was ejected by the Southern Baptist Home Mission Society upon the written charge of "refusing to preach the Gospel of Christ in harmony with southern institutions," has recently given to the same minister a unanimous and earnest call.

THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

This religious denomination, one of the original anti-slavery churches of the northern states, bids fair to do good and effective service in enlarging the area of anti-slavery religious organizations in the South. In Virginia, where the "Brethren" are numerous in the valley of the Shenandoah, they have much to suffer on account of their anti-slavery sentiments, but they are meeting with great success in Tennessee and Missouri, and thus aiding in the thorough redemption of these two states from the rule of the slave power.

A Religious Rivalry—English Intrigues in the Sandwich Islands.

The Right Rev. T. N. Staley, D. D., Bishop of Honolulu, now visiting the United States for the purpose of raising funds for the support of the raising of an Episcopal bishoprick in the Hawaiian Islands, preached in this city on Sunday evening last for this object, at the church of the Incaanation.

In his discourse he asserted that the system of religious education imparted to the natives of those islands by Presbyterian missionaries, sent there by the American Board of Missions, was defective; that their doctrine was a religion of conscience, a subjective form of faith, not fitted to the simple natures of these people, who, for the want of a religion to attract them by its formularies, were relapsing into their former state of heathenism, sorcery, and witchcraft—showing, to use the Bishop's own words, "that the Christianity taught these people is so far, most superficial; that if it had been what it ought to have been, surely the morals of the people to-day would not be ten times worse than they were under the heathen system."

Hard statements these, if true. But it is an axiom that "no animosities are more bitter than those which arise from religion," and the bishop in his zeal to state all he could against the American Missionaries, may have overlooked some of the good he might have said of them.

There is, however, unless we are sadly misinformed, one element entering into the Bishop's enterprise which the American people should fully understand before giving one penny to its support. We mean its political bearing. It has never been denied that it had for its object in its inception, and has maintained ever since, the advancement of English as opposed to American interests in the islands.

The Hawaiian Islands are growing daily in importance. For some years sugar, rice and coffee have been successfully cultivated, and this group is destined to be to the Pacific States what the West Indies are to the Atlantic.

The sugar crop of the Islands alone, at the present day, gives employment to two lines of packets between San Francisco and Honolulu, with three vessels in each line, averaging fifty days for a round trip. With the certainty of a line of steamers between California and China, touching at the Islands, their prospective importance is incalculable. That they should remain an independent government is of vital importance to the American interests. Let our wealthy men inquire well into this matter, and if it shall be determined to plant and support an Episcopal Church there, let it be a branch of the church of this country, free from the suspicion of English political intrigue.—[Evening Post.

THE

"El Dorado Cook Stove,"

IS THE CHAMPION OF THE DAY!

It has been sold in this market only a short time, yet

It has taken the lead of every thing in the Cooking Stove line.

In no case has it failed to give entire satisfaction, and it has elicited the highest praise from all who have witnessed its working.

It has all the best points of our former favorite Stoves, besides others which they do not possess. Among them are the following points:

1st. The ashes, dropping into a sifter beneath the grate, are sifted without moving.

2d. It sifts ashes without dust, or other incumbrance, and the cinders are ready to be used immediately.

3d. It consumes as little, if not actually less, coal than any stove now in use as a Cook Stove.

4th. It may be regulated with greater ease and perfection than was ever before considered possible.

5th. It has a large Ash Box, perfectly tight, thus avoid scattering and dust.

6th. It has as large an Oven as any Cook Stove, and the castings are heavier and finer than those of other manufacture.

7th, and last. These Stoves are warranted in respect to working, cracks, imperfections, &c., &c.

The Silver Mines of Nevada.

Veins of silver, unlike those of gold, are said to be inexhaustible. It is believed that no vein has ever been worked out. They incline downard, perhaps at an average angle of about 45 degrees, and increase in richness and size as the earth is penetrated, indicating that they have been thrown up from impenetrable depths below.

The productions of the most celebrated silver mines of the world have been almost fabulous. The Freiberg mines of Saxony, from 1524 to 1550, yielded the enormous amount of 208,000 tons of pure silver. These mines are still worked and are still productive. The Hanover mines in the Hartz Mountains, produced $1,000,000 worth in 1854.

The Mexican mines have far outdone any upon the eastern continent. The San Avasco mines gave its stockholders $54,000,000 in three years. Other mines did nearly as well. For twenty years ending with 1862, the silver mines of Mexico are estimated to have yielded $400,000,000. Mines that have been constantly worked for two or three centuries betray no signs of failure.

From 1849 to 1862 the shipments of gold from California to foreign countries, were $750,000,000, and the gross product for the last sixteen years is put down at not less than $1,050,000,000.

Incalculable as this product seems, the short history of Nevada shows that the largest profits have been derived from silver mining. This State has been opened up to the world only about four years, and yet a leading New York paper concludes an able article on its silver wealth by saying:

"We believe that there is gold and silver enough in the Sierra Nevada Mountains to pay the national debts of the United States and of England ten times over. But these precious metals are in the mountains, and not laying around loosely upon the outside of the rocks."

Bishop Simpson of the M. E. Church, after visiting Nevada, delivered a lecture in New York from which the following is an extract:

"I was there surprised to find the best papers written on the subject of the resources and wealth of Nevada were from the pen of the agent of Louis Napoleon. I saw again the footsteps of the French Emperor there, and thought he was looking to see what degree of wealth could be found, in case these United States should in time be disolved. That wealth comprises that which the nations of the world never have yet contended for. Were the debt of our nation to amount to 20,000,000,000 of dollars, there is wealth enough there to pay it all and giveto every soldier who returns from our battle-fields a musket of silver in place of iron; and when the iron-cladscome back from the scenes of victory before Charleston and Mobile, and have swept away the defences ot Wilmington; when the iron-clads come back into our harbor,—there shall be silver enough left to plate those boats more heavily than they are plated with iron. I do not speak now from idle speculation, but I speak of that wealth from observation and actual calculation."

One of the Senators from this new State, in a lecture in Cooper Institute delivered at the request of New York capitalists, estimated that the "time is not far distant when the product of the mines (of Nevada) will reach the enormous sum of $500,000,000 per annum."

We have not time to collect or space to print more upon this particular phase of our subject. A few facts of a more particular character.

The oldest and probably best-known mines of Nevada are those of Washoe District, of which Virginia City is the leading town. These mines have been longest opened and most fully developed.

The official reports from some of the best mines of Washoe, such as "Gould and Curry," "Ophir" and "Empire," show an average yield of $65.00 to the ton of ore. The average yield of the celebrated Comstock Lode is from $30 to $40 per ton. But though the largestamount of silver hasbeen taken from this district, owing to the early discovery of its mines, and the large amount of capital invested in them, by far the richest mines are found farther east—in the eastern portion of the State, in the Reese River District, Lander County, of which region Austin, now containing from 6,000 to 10,000 inhabitants, is the leading town. Of ores taken from the mines in this region, and crushed at the Oregon Mill, 1,500 tons yielded $300,000, or $200 per ton. About 54 tons crushed at another mill, consisting of all kinds of ores taken from the mines, gave an average yield of $230.50 per ton. At the Little California Mill at Austin, 603 tons were crushed from Dec. 1864 to July 1865, yielding $230.36 per ton.

Col. D. E. Buel, one of the discoverers of these mines, built the first mill in Austin, and has run a mill all the time, is well informed on the yield the ores of the best mines at Austin will work, by mill process, and average of $230 to $250 per ton.

To show how the developements on Reese River have been made, and also to conclude this article, we give extracts from a letter from Mr. J. O. C. Vandenbosch, Vice President of the first National Bank in Austin, in answer to inquiries of a gentleman in San Francisco. He says, writing Feb. 7, 1864:

"In answer to your inquiries about the developement and prospects of the Oregon Mill and Mining Company, and silver property in and about Austin, I take pleasure in stating that a little over two years ago the parties composing the present owners of this came here. The country was entirely wild; no settlements nearer than Virginia City. Four of us went to work at that time without any capital. Good luck favored us. We made some rich discoveries, and located the 'North-Star,' 'Oregon,' and 'Southern-Light' Mines. We commenced building our mill in the spring of 1863. Lack of capital compelled us to proceed very slowly, and we did not complete the mill until last fall (1864). We commenced to crush some rock in our mill Jan. 6, 1864, but had frequent delays. Until the completion of the mill, we did not work more than two or three tons of ore per day.

"Working under all the disadvantages of a new country, over four hundred miles distant from San Francisco, or other place wherefrom to get necessary tools, machinery, supplies, &c., high wages, high freights, working on borrowed capital, at high interest per month, and often difficult to procure at all, we obtained the following results:—

|---|---|
| "Built a complete ten-stamp mill, with roasting reverberatory furnaces, amalgamating apparatus, &c., at a cost of (coin) | $120,000.00 |
| "Expenditures on North-Star Min (coin) | 30,000.00 |
| "Expenditures on Oregon Mine (coin) | 15,000.00 |
| "Expenditures on Southern-Light Mine (coin) | 5,000.00 |
| "Blacksmith tools, teams, office fixtures, mining tools, and quicksilver | 10,000.00 |
| "Feeding wood ranch | 2,000.00 |
| "Total | $182,000.00 |

"We paid the indebtedness in gold in the first year's run of our mill, and had a nice profit remaining over this sum.

"Our North-Star Mine furnished the principal part of the ores we reduced. The history of the developement of this mine and of our Company is the leading feature in the history of our Reese-River Mines.

"The manner of developement made on this, on the Oregon and Southern-Light, will enable us to get out rock, with very little expenditure, for at least two years to come.

| | |
|---|---|
| "The yield of all our ores, good, bad, and indifferent, for the first eighteen months, per ton, was | $145.00 |
| "The number of tons, first-class ores, we reduced, in June, July, and August, was | 180 |
| "Ounces in bullion received was | 90,000 |
| "Worth per ounce | 1.15 |
| "Average yield per ton was | 575.00 |

"Some of our selected ores run much higher.

"We mix our richest ores now with the poorer. By so doing, they yield the silver more readily, and make an average of, say $200 per ton of all our ores.

"About eighteen months ago the first mill was commenced to be built.

"Besides those in course of completion there are now some ten mills here.

"Four of the best yielded, in 1864, $600,000.00.

"The amount of capital in mines and mills invested in the year 1864 was, in round numbers, $2,000,000.00.

"This result was thirty per cent. on the whole investment made here in the first year of our silver history, which we deem very flattering and most encouraging.

For the facts we have given above we are indebted to a pamphlet upon Silver Mining, recently issued from the press.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

—The American Unitarian Association have published two valuable pamphlets which may be had on application to their address in Boston. The first of these is entitled "A Call to the Liberal Ministry," and contains information with regard to the theological schools of the denomination; the other is called "A Statement of Faith," and is perhaps sufficiently described by this title.

—Rev. Samuel Osgood furnishes the Monthly Journal of the Unitarian Association an article on the Second Service in our churches which will repay examination. Dr. Osgood thinks that one formal service with its elaborate sermon is as much as can result in good either to people or pastor, and earnestly recommends to all churches some form of Vesper Service which shall have a more devotional and sympathetic character, adding heart as well as numbers, and "making the preacher feel that he is not alone or unhelped." He says of his own church that they are now in the fifth year of the use of such a service, and could not be induced to give it up, adding, "To some persons it has been almost a new ministration of religion, and they love it beyond measure. It always wins numbers, and our church is generally filled; and, on especial occasions, to overflowing."

—Rev. Ebenezer Turrell, of Medford, Mass., labored in the ministry forty-six years, commencing Sept. 3, 1727, and ending April 15, 1773. During this time it appears that he preached five thousand five hundred and eighty-two carefully written sermons, no one of which could have been less than an hour long. He never repeated a sermon. Mr. Turrell was a native of Boston—a graduate of Harvard, receiving his degree in 1721. His last sermon was on the text, "If a man die shall he live again ?"

—In a discussion of the proposition to substitute the Sabbath School exercises for the afternoon service, by the Orthodox Congregational Conference recently in session at Lewiston, Rev. Geo. E. Adams, D. D., of Brunswick, said, "After a ministerial service of thirty-six years, he was satisfied he could have done more good by one sermon, than by the present system."

—Joseph Boardman, from Pownal, was installed over the First Congregational church at Hopkinton, N. H., on the 23d.

—The Society of Friends at the West held their yearly meeting recently at Richmond, Indiana. The subject of co-operation on their part with outside Christians, in the various works of charity and benevolence, came up for consideration. It was resolved to endeavor to raise, this year, $30,000 to aid in various works of humanity.

—By an arrangement which has now been completed, the "Christian" interest in Antioch College becomes subordinate to the Unitarian By the payment of $100,000 on the part of the latter into the funds of the institution, it is agreed that seven of the trustees only shall be Christians, and thirteen Unitarians.

—Bishop Kingsley of the Methodist Episcopal Church has recently been on a visit to his distant diocese of California, where he presided at the thirteenth annual conference.

—From an article in the Christian World, written by a native Greek, we have an interesting account of what is going on among his countrymen to bring about a better observance of the Sabbath.

—Rev. J. O. Fiske, in a communication in the Mirror dated at London, says: "I went down to Bunhill Burying Grounds, where in a space of less that four acres 107,000 persons were buried between 1718 and 1832. There were the graves of Dr. Watts, Daniel De Foe, John Bunyan, George Fox, Wesley's mother, and a large number of other distinguished persons.—Just opposite is John Wesley's own chapel in which he used to preach, his very pulpit, and the smaller lecture-room, which was filled full at five o'clock every morning year after year with multitudes desirous of hearing the gospel from Mr. Wesley's lips. I wonder where the preacher is in these days, who could draw crowds day after day and year after year, at such an hour in the morning to listen to the simple, straightforward preaching of the gospel."

—At the Congregational Conference at Lewiston, the other day, while the question of Missions was under consideration, Rev. Mr. Balkam, of Lewiston, said he "would have the Maine Missionary Society occupy the first place. It had not in years past. A heresy had crept into the church some years ago, and yet prevails to some extent, that the way to help ourselves is to send the Gospel to the heathen, and by way of Japan to evangelize Maine."—On another question the same gentleman—alluding, it is probable, to recent affairs in this city—remarked that he had recently heard our claims to be a church denied. A newly ordained minister had been told that his ordination was no ordination. The speaker would advise persons thus assailed to vindicate the claims of the church. He would prove it to be 1800 years old.

—DIED. In Orono, Nov. 10th, of typhoid fever, Rev. L. Barstow, pastor of the Universalist Church in that town, aged about 36 years. Mr. Barstow was one of the most high-minded, amiable and exemplary clergymen of our State, was beloved by all who knew him, and will be deeply mourned by all his townsmen irrespective of party or creed.

—All-Saints' day, October 31st, was celebrated on Wednesday by the Catholics and Episcopalians. It perpetuates the memory of the saints and martyrs of the church. The festival originated in the seventh century when the Pantheon at Rome was converted into a temple of Catholic worship, and dedicated by Pope Boniface, the Fourth, to the Blessed Virgin and all the saints who were previously honored in the days of their demise.

—The Baptist theological school at Newton is more flourishing than ever before. The junior class numbers 21.

—The Catholics of Lawrence, Mass., have determined to build a large cathedral, larger than any church in the State, under the auspices of the Augustinians.

—A committee of the late Episcopal convention, comprising the bishops of Tennessee, Arkansas and North Carolina, have gone to Washington, to present to the President the congratulatory resolutions regarding the lately restored unity of the Episcopal church. An exchange thinks this a very impudent proceeding, coming from a body that flatly refused to rejoice in the restoration of the Union of the States and the abolition of slavery. Why should the President care about the restored unity of the Episcopal church, especially on such a basis ?

—The new Congregational Church in Pittsburg, Pa., lately erected for the Society of which Rev. H. D. Moore—recently of this city—is pastor, was dedicated a few days since.—The sermon was by Mr. Moore, who has commenced his labors in his new home under the most flattering auspices.

—Rev. D. Pike, pastor of the Christian church at Newburyport, preached his twenty-fifth anniversary sermon on Sunday last. His ministry has been popular and successful, and he has found time to be active in temperance, politics and general reform; has been in the Governor's council, and is now deputy collector of Newburyport. He has educated himself since he entered the ministry, having been almost wholly unlettered when he began to preach.

—The John Street Methodist church in New York celebrated its 97th anniversary on Sunday last with a great love feast.

☞ The morning of the New York Election the World instituted a comparison between the two tickets, and insisted that the weakest name on the Democratic ticket was by far stronger than the strongest name on the Republican ticket; and yet, the Democrats have been whipped out of sight! If the Republicans can achieve such a victory with a weak ticket, what wouldn't they do with a strong one ?

ITEMS OF STATE NEWS.

☞ There is a rumor that Mr. Poor has bought up the Argus' influence for the R. & N. A. Railroad, with a fifty dollar bond, secured by the assigned claims against the U. S. Government. It is an extravagant price, and such recklessness may ruin the corporation. A quarter dollar Veazie shinplaster would have been big pay.

☞ We fear the late elections have had a bad effect upon the usually sweet temper of the Argus. He can't refer to a Union man in terms of common politeness. He speaks of "Rev. James W. Hunnicutt, as a wandering radical." This "radical" did have to "wander" from his home in Virginia, losing all his property and barely saving his life, because "conservatives," like the Argus, hunted him down for his devotion to the Union. Mr. Hunnicutt can stand the Argus' harmless thunderbolts, since he has escaped the knife and the bullet from the party in Virginia with which that paper sympathizes and has sympathized for the last five years.

☞ The Bath Times says Elisha McKenney, Esq., has been appointed Postmastar at Wiscasset vice Mr. Taggart resigned.

☞ The Calais Advertiser says that at the close of a lecture on Temperance in that city, by Rev. Dr. Keeler of that city, a few evenings since, the pledge of total abstinence was circulated, and 104 persons, mostly young persons, signed it without hesitation.

☞ John H. Kimball, Esq., of Bath, has been chosen a Director of the Androscoggin Railroad, in place of Capt. Samuel I. Robinson, deceased.

☞ The Eastport Sentinel says a fire broke out at the Pembroke Iron Works establishment Wednesday morning, and burned the nail and rivet factories. The fire originated in the blacksmith shop. The wind was favorable, otherwise the whole establishment would have been burned.

☞ The Biddeford Union confesses to a secret joy that it has been wisely arranged not to have two Thanksgivings; because it would bring the price of fowls to an exorbitant figure and if the Executive were to countenance such wickedness, he would be guilty of opening the door to foul play. Doubtless Gov. Cony took this legal view of the matter.

☞ A note from the Adjutant General's office informs us that JOHN M. CANDLEE, of a Maryland regiment, a native of Maine, died July 24, 1865. His heirs can address James M. Stephens, No. 87 Fayette Street, Baltimore, Md. State papers requested to copy.

☞ Our amiable and placid friend of the Bath Times says: "The Portland Press growls more than any other paper, if one of its items should happen to get into another paper and not be credited, and yet it is not over scrupulous in such matters itself, thus showing that it is easier to preach than to practice." We can inform the editor of the Times that we never, knowingly and wilfully, omit proper credit, and we can further inform him that his paper is such an intolerably "slow coach" that we have a live man in that city who makes it a point to forward items promptly, before they become musty; and "that's what's the matter."

☞ The Lewiston Journal says that typhoid fever of a malignant type has prevailed in that vicinity for some time past.

☞ The Whig says Dr. Calvin Seavey, one of the Alumni of Bowdoin, has opened Bangor's subscription to the Memorial Hall by a generous donation of $500—paid down. Dr. S. had previously given the college $1000 in gold.

☞ It is funny that a newspaper published under the drippings of Bowdoin College, should style such lectures as are given in our large cities—such as those of our Mercantile and Independent Courses—a nuisance! "Sour grapes," probably.

☞ The Kennebec Journal remarks that one of the most eminent men for business in Portland, on a recent visit to Augusta and seeing the enterprise and energy of the people after the great fire, remarked that he should henceforth greatly respect the citizens of Augusta for their courage, their enterprise and their public spirit.

☞ The Lewiston Journal says twelve or fifteen new stores have been erected the past season, on Lisbon street in that city.

☞ A whistling brigade has been formed in this city. Frequently in the midst of their practice they wet their whistle to make it go better.—[Lewiston Journal.

☞ The Journal says several of the mills in Lewiston are running extra time. A portion of the Lewiston Mills are run from 1 o'clock in the morning to 4.

☞ The stable attached to the dwelling of W. S. Field was consumed by fire on the evening of Friday last. The building with some hay and two cows were consumed. The boys with the assistance of some grown up persons present, came near demolishing the dwelling, and hopelessly injuring the furniture, without any good cause whatever.—[Filsworth American.

☞ The Bath Banks have declared the following semi-annual dividends: Sagadahoc National, 7 per cent.; Bath National 6 per cent.; First National, 6 per cent.; Lincoln National, 5 per cent.; City Bank, 6 per cent.

ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

☞ The election news continues to grow better and better. The New York World says it has no disposition to count its wounds or conceal them. The poor dead corpus of a once honored Democracy awaits burial. It is already corrupted, and decomposition is far advanced.

☞ "Perley" telegraphs from Washington, "The election news has had an excellent effect here. The reconstructed rebels and their friends evidently abandon all hope of aid from the now powerless Northern Democrats, while the Union men feel confident that the President can but see who are his supporters."

☞ The Revenue detectives on the Northern frontier are almost daily discovering new methods of smuggling: A few days since one hundred barrels of flour were seized, over sixty of them containing tin cans holding from three to five gallons of spirits.

☞ Mr. Seward is said to enjoy immensely the result of the election in New York. It shows how feeble has been the influence of the malignant Blair to injure him in his own state. He stands nobly vindicated.

☞ The St. Louis papers announce that Maj. Gen. Blair has resigned, and that his resignation has been accepted.

☞ The Water Cure establishment of Dr. Munde at Florence, Mass., near Northampton, was entirely destroyed by fire a few days since. The fire originated in a bath room, and the loss is quite heavy.

☞ Mr. Souchard, the French Consul in Boston, has returned from a visit to France and has resumed his official duties.

☞ The Boston Post bears defeat with its accustomed philosophical equanimity. It says: "The elections in New York and New Jersey. For farther information see Republican papers."

☞ The "Bird of freedom" gave a loud screech when the returns came in Tuesday night.—[Boston Post.

☞ The Louisville Journal says "the Legislature of South Carolina has abolished slavery Now let it adopt the Constitutional Amendment prohibiting it throughout the United States, and the State will then present herself to the people of the country regenerated and disenthralled."

☞ Washington correspondence says that Gen. Butler contemplates removing permanently to Washington, and that he has been negotiating for the purchase of a residence there.

☞ A Democrat in New York, who was impatiently waiting news from the Massachusetts election, said, after hearing a few returns read: "Our Democratic favors from the Bay State are couched in very small figures."

☞ A dispatch says when President Johnson received the official returns from New Jersey he clapped his hands, exclaiming, "Good, good!" Why shouldn't he? His true friends have triumphed.

☞ James Mahan was crushed to death on Monday last at the rolling mill of the Nashua, N. H., Iron Company's works between a heavily loaded car and the wall of the building. Both arms and legs were broken.

☞ A Missouri railroad has adopted the system of making each passenger pay one cent to the conductor on account of the government tax. The St. Louis Democrat presumes that no one will begrudge the amount, as it goes towards paying the national debt.

☞ Some say that the quickest way to destroy "weeds" is to marry a widow. It is no doubt a most delightful species of husbandry.

☞ Rev. J. C. Fletcher is delivering a lecture entitled "A Trip up the Amazon."

☞ "Are you a Christian Indian?" asked a benevolent gentleman of one of the Chippewa tribe. "No, sir," was the answer; "I whiskey Ingen."

☞ Emery A. Dresser who has filled the office of City Marshal of Portsmouth, N. H., for nearly two years past, was dismissed from his office at a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday evening upon a charge of assault on Charles W. Bailey, captain of the night watch.

☞ The nail and spike factory and machine shop of the Pembroke Iron Company were burned on Tuesday. Loss, $22,000; insured for $5200. The rolling mill and new machine shop were not injured.

☞ The trouble between the New York theatrical managers and their orchestras promises to culminate in the musicians going back at the old prices.

☞ Over 1,100 licenses to retail liquor have been taken out in the District of Columbia this year. This is about one liquor shop for every 81 persons in the District.

☞ A tender hearted railway engineer on a certain railroad says he never runs over a man when he can help it, because "it musses up the track so."

☞ It seems from the statements of Wirz, who was executed yesterday in Washington, that before going south he worked awhile in the Bay State Mills, at Lawrence.

☞ The Boston Journal justly remarks that it is not enough that each Southern State by its Convention recognizes the destruction of slavery, for that has no operative effect. It is not enough that each abolishes slavery, for that keeps the subject within State control, and the power which destroys may create anew. The object is to make a clean sweep, an utter and everlasting extermination of the institution everywhere under the folds of the national flag; and that can only be done by the Constitutional Amendment.

☞ The New Bedford Mercury relates that one applicant for the privilege of voting in that city was refused, upon the ground that he was dead. He very persistently denied the statement, but the voting list was against him.

☞ Mr. Samuel Bowles of the Springfield Republican, mentions as an excellent feature of banquets at San Francisco, "the serving of hot beef tea, with just a smack of claret in it, as a constant refreshment during the evening."

☞ The title of the Savannah Republican is changed into the National Republican; and the conductors of the paper mean to make it what its new title purports—national; and to endeavor to "obliterate sectionalism."

☞ M. Desor, a Swiss naturalist, has investigated and confirmed the statement that small fish have been found in Algerian artesian wells two hundred feet deep. These fish belong to the carp species. They are healthy, and have fine, large and perfect eyes. Subterranean fish are usually blind, on account of the uselessness of eyes to such creatures.

EVENING PAPERS.

Execution of Wirz—He Declares his Innocence on the Gallows.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.

This morning father Boyle administered the sacrament to Capt Wirz, and Father Wigget then placed upon the prisoner the black cambric robe, and remarked, "I hope this will be turned into a white one in the other world." At twenty minutes past ten Capt. Wirz came from his cell in the Old Capitol Prison, accompanied by Provost Marshal Russell and other officers, and by Fathers Boyle and Wigget, and passing between the military guard they ascended the scaffold. The prisoner was then seated. The guard consisted of the 195th Pennsylvania Volunteers, and three detachments of the Veteran Reserve Corps, under Capt. Walbridge, the Military Superintendent of the Old Capitol Prison. There were several hundred spectators besides the military.

Amid profound silence Provost Marshal Russell proceeded to read the order of the War Department, founded on the verdict of the Court Martial which tried the prisoner. The following is the President's order:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 3, 1865.

The proceedings, finding and sentence of the Court, in the Wirz case, are approved, and it is ordered that the sentence be carried into execution by the officer commanding the Department of Washington, Friday, the 10th day of November, 1865, between the hours of six in the morning and twelve at noon.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

After the reading of the order Wirz conversed with those on the platform with seeming calmness and self-possession, and it was remarked that he had a smiling countenance. To his spiritual advisers he said, "I am innocent. I have to die, but I can die like a man. I have hope in the future. I have nothing more to say." His legs and hands were tied, the noose passed around the neck, and the black cap drawn over the face. He stood erect without faltering, evidently having nerved himself for the solemn event. Those on the platform retired to the railing, leaving the doomed man in the centre of the structure.—After a few moments of profound quiet, the drop, at a preconcerted signal, fell. The sound thus occasioned having reached the ears of a promiscuous crowd outside the capitol ground, was responded to by repeated shouts of approbation.

The convict directly after falling was considerably convulsed in the legs, but the agony was soon over. He hung about fifteen minutes, and was then cut down, the body laid upon a stretcher and conveyed to the prison, where it was placed in a coffin and transferred to Father Boyle for interment. His neck was broken by the fall. The proceedings occupied about three-fourths of an hour.

Washington Items—The Jamaica Rebellion.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

The Times' Washington dispatch states that the reports relative to Cabinet meetings on the Adams-Russell correspondence, are absurd, as Mr. Seward had written a reply to Earl Russell six weeks ago. It is generally understood that Mr. Seward informed Earl Russell that we should not press the question of arbitration, nor submit to the decision of a commission, unless all the claims at issue should be submitted to the latter.

The Navy Department has a dispatch from Hilton Head, dated the 7th, stating that the gunboat Ticga had arrived with Oliver Martin and Joseph Norton, the only survivors of the fourteen who endeavored to save themselves on a raft from the wrecked steamer Republic.

The Tribune's special Washington dispatch states that the Jamaica standard of the 16th ult. gives the official report of the English General Nelson, at Morant Day. He says every insurrectionist will be hung as soon as captured. A British gunboat opened fire upon a collection of eight hundred women and children, dispersing them with 32-pounder shells.

French Suspicions.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

The French government has lodged complaint at the custom house of suspicion of five steamers in this port, about to carry arms and munitions of war to Mexico; also specify one hundred and twenty-five persons by name as being sympathizers with the Liberal cause.

The friends of Mexico deny any intention to violate the neutrality laws as practiced by France. The steamer H. S. Hagar was examined by the custom house officers before she could sail for Brazil.

Mormon Defiance of Federal Authority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

A Salt Lake letter to the Tribune, of Oct. 8th, states that Brigham Young and the other leaders of the Mormons, have changed their tactics, and now proclaim polygamy to be their religion, which they will sustain by force of arms and ammunition, and openly defy the authorities.

Nevada Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.

The State election in Nevada for local officers, members of the Legislature and Congressmen, took place on the 7th inst. D. R. Ashley, the Republican candidate for Congress, has about 1,000 majority.

Attack on a Railroad Train by "Roughs."

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

Some thirty roughs made an attack on a railway train at Patterson, Wednesday night, but were driven off by soldiers on the train, with some dozen of the former badly wounded.

Arrest of the Chicago Express Robbers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.

The amount of the money stolen from the American express yesterday forenoon, was only $40,000. The robbers were arrested last night, and all the money recovered.

The Forthcoming Department Reports.

The National Intelligencer says the Secretaries and heads of the several departments of the Government, are rapidly preparing the reports of the operations of the different branches of the Government the past year.—They must necessarily prove more than usually interesting in their summing up of results at the close of the war and the re-establishment of peace. The Postmaster General's report will be one of great interest, in view of the reorganization of the southern mail service, and Governor Dennison will bring his report down to a later period than usual, in order to give an exhibit of the condition of the southern mail service at the present time.—The revenue of the postal service in the loyal States for the past year was larger than that of all the States before the war. General Grant's report, which has been in the hands of the Secretary of War for some days, has been recalled by the General.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Sherman and his Campaigns

BY COLONELS BOWMAN AND IRWIN.

Aids to Gen. Sherman in the Campaigns described.

This work now in press will be a work of rare merit, both for interest of narative and as a true and faithful transcript of events connected with the late war.

The editors having free access to the private papers and journals of their Commanding Officer, have been enabled to present a more faithful record of events, a more complete inner official history of the great Campaigns, than it would be possible for any one else to do.

The work is embellished with fine Steel Engraved Portraits of the Commanding Officers, and Illustrated with Maps, Plans and Diagrams of battle-fields, routes and marches, furnished by the Chief Engineer of Sherman's Army, adding much to the interest of the narrative, and helping to a better understanding of the various movements and positions of the grand Army.

OCTOBER TERM—DAVIS, J., PRESIDING.

FRIDAY.—The hearing in the divorce case of Abbie F. Weston libellant vs. Daniel C. Weston was concluded. Mr. Swasey argued the case for libellee, and Mr. Carleton for libellant. Decision reserved.

The remainder of the day was taken up in the trial of the trespass case of George Knight vs. Scott Dyer.

MUNICIPAL COURT, NOV. 10.

The case of Michael Ward—a search and seizure process—was taken up. His counsel, Messrs. Howard & Cleaves, moved to quash the complaint on the ground of misnomer—his name being Michael W. Ward. The case was then continued to Saturday.

MINING INFORMATION.—We understand that several of our "substantial" citizens will call this afternoon, at two o'clock, upon Col. Buel and Judge Frye, at the Preble House, to examine their specimens of rich silver ores, and to become better acquainted with the mines which they represent. These gentlemen are men of reputation and character, and do not come as speculators, but as representatives of one of our richest new States, desiring if possible, by fair and legitimate business operations, to enlist some attention to their State, and to divert a small portion of the surplus capital of the East in favor of the development of the mines which are there awaiting such development. It requires brains, muscle and capital to do this, and Messrs. Buel and Frye are prepared to demonstrate that an investment of these, to almost any extent, will pay in rich return dividends. We hope our men of enterprise and wealth will give them a call.

The "Diana" mine—represented by these gentlemen—is one of the richest in the Reese River District. About two thirds of it is for sale on such terms that the purchasers will be as secure as it is possible for men to be in any business enterprise. This mine is no doubtful thing, no undeveloped enterprise, but a working mine of great richness, and of such extent that it affords room for vast expansion.

PORTLAND is rapidly increasing in wealth and importance, and many new branches of business are springing into existence among us. Among the many new and enterprising houses recently established in our city, we notice, with pleasure, that of William Grace & Co., publishers and general wholesale agents for the best publishers of engravings in the Union. It is a part of the formerly well-known house of Brown, Grace & Co., Philadelphia, and is winning hosts of friends every day by its fair and honorable mode of conducting its business, and by the super-excellence of its goods. All the new engravings are received by these gentlemen, as soon as they are issued from the press. Their Grand Novelty Sales is increasing in popularity every day, and our readers can rest assured that they will serve their customers promptly and fairly. The members of the firm are honorable, business men, who believe in honest enterprise. We shall, as occasion offers, make mention of other enterprises we see being commenced in every part of the city.

IT will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that the Patent Right for Marshall's Improved Anchor is offered for sale: and we think our capitalists will do well to enquire into its merits, as we are satisfied from what we have seen of it that it is one of the greatest improvements of the age.

The inventor claims to have proved by actual experiment that (1st) it has double the holding power of any anchor now in use, and, consequently, will only need to be one-half as heavy as the old-fashioned anchor;

2d. Both flukes take the ground at the same time, and in such a manner that it is impossible to foul it in any position in which it may be placed.

We commend it to the attention of our manufacturers, as we think, when once introduced, it will take the place, to a great extent, of all other anchors.

THE MARBLE HOTEL FOR SALE.—It will be noticed by the advertisement published this morning that the large elegant, but unfinished, marble hotel, known as "Wood's Hotel," is offered for sale. Here is an inducement for some person or company to enter upon a speculation that must pay handsomely. A first class hotel is among the greatest present needs of our city, and here is one that can be finished and put in readiness to be opened to the public next season. We hope a purchaser will soon be found, and that we may hear the sounds of the mechanic within its walls this winter, getting everything in preparation for the doors being thrown open to the public next year.

MUSICAL.—Cotton, Murphy & Smith's California Minstrels gave an entertainment at Deering Hall last evening. The place was completely packed, many persons being unable to obtain seats. The entertainment was a capital one,—the music, both vocal and instrumental, being far above the average of such performances, while the jokes were fresh and new. The applause was enthusiastic. They will give their second, and last entertainment this evening at the same place. Seats may be secured any time to-day on the lower floor, the whole of which is reserved; price 50 cents. To the gallery price 35 cents.

FOR LIBERIA.—The H. P. Russell sailed from Baltimore, Md., on the 4th inst., with one hundred and seventy-four freedmen for Liberia, under the care of the American Colonization Society. They were from Lynchburg, Va. and its vicinity. A large part of them are members of the Baptist Church, and the adults are generally mechanics. An eye-witness of the parting scenes at Lynchburg, says: "Thousands were out, appropriate and religious exercises were observed, and many were affected, to tears. It was a notable day in that city." This is said to be the utterance of many that are preparing to go.

Annual Report of the Board of Managers of the Association for the Relief of Aged Indigent Women.

In presenting the Eleventh Annual Report of our Association, we would gratefully acknowledge the kind Providence which has sustained us through another year.

Under the pressure of limited means and exorbitant prices we urgently ask an increase of Donations and Subscriptions. The returning peace and prosperity of our country encourages us to look forward with cheerful hope to better days, when greater means and more ample accommodations shall enable us to extend the comforts of our "Home" to a larger number, embracing, in addition, to the regular inmates, such suitable applicants as shall occasionally seek for a home, as boarders, under our roof. Several such persons have applied, which had we room to receive would add to the usefulness, as well as funds, of our Institution.

We have room for only eight inmates in our present house. There have been four applications for admission the past year; but only one, an old lady of eighty-seven years, was admitted, there being but one vacancy.

No special events have marked the year. The kind attentions of our faithful matron, and a usual share of health have contributed to the comfort of the inmates. That nine, with the matron, have been supported on the small sum of $774.62, not including the salary paid matron, tells the strict economy which regulates the household, while we desire to do more, and more generously, for the aged ones cast upon our charity and care.

We would here acknowledge with our thanks the donations received through the year, of material and work in repairs on the house, three cords of wood, eight dollars on coal bill, a few pounds of sugar and tea, half a barrel of flour, a generous supply of ice through the season from the ice dealer, with vegetables, fruit and other luxuries, so grateful and almost necessary for the aged, but which our limited means do not permit us to provide,—also the kind attendance of physicians, the visits of various clergymen of the city, the annual sermon from the Rev. Mr. Hewes, the liberality of the printers in gratuitously printing our reports and notices, and the kindness of the proprietors of Zion's Advocate and the Christian Mirror, in sending their papers through the year.

In the Treasurer's report appended, we present to our patrons and the public, a statement of our funds. By Order of the Board,

ANNE L. PIERCE, Secretary.

Portland, Oct. 31, 1865.

SCALLOPS.—Several days since a kind friend left at our dwelling a liberal supply of these dainty molusks, which he said should be served like oysters, and were equally palatable. Ignorance of the donor alone has prevented an acknowledgment of them before, but having learned that they were from the Federal street Fish Market, kept by Mr. Hopkins, we take pleasure in acknowledging his courtesy. The scallops are very dainty, have the flavor of oysters, and in appearance have a decided advantage over this popular bivalve. We advise those of epicurean taste to make trial of the scallops.

CONSIDERABLE complaint has been made lately at Green's Landing, Deer Isle Thoroughfare, that the channel buoy inside of Morse Island Light is out of place some one hundred and fifty feet to the southward of its proper place. The consequence is, quite a number of vessels have struck the rocks, creating considerable damage, and a great deal of hard swearing. Where is our Light House Inspector?

OPERA. — The young ladies of the High School have formed themselves into an opera troupe under the euphonious title of the "Humbug Opera Troupe," and will give their first performance this afternoon at half-past two o'clock, in the school room. The opera to be performed is an original one, got up among themselves. If there is not some wit and fun in the production it will not be like the girls of the High School.

SCARBORO', Nov. 10, 1865.

The friends of Rev. Henry H. Martin met at the Parsonage on Wednesday evening. After spending the evening in social converse, singing, &c., the plate was passed, which resulted in the collection of seventy-five dollars.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY LECTURES.—The Committee on Lectures have completed their programme for the course this winter, and it will be published on Monday. Among the lecturers will be Henry Ward Beecher, Rev. Dr. Chapin, Bishop Simpson, J. B. Gough and other eminent orators. It will be one of the best courses got up by this Association.

RAILWAY TRAFFIC.—The receipts on the Grand Trunk Railway, for the week ending Nov. 4th, were:

| Passengers, | $56,679 00 |
| Express Freight, Mails and Sundries, | 4,036 00 |
| Freight and Live Stock, | 80,731 00 |
| Total, | $141,446 00 |
| Corresponding week last year, | 116,850 00 |
| Increase, | $24,596 00 |

ITS PHILOSOPHY.—Sozodont is an antacid. Sozodont is an anti-putrescent. Sozodont is a tonic. Sozodont is all vegetable and entirely harmless. Hence it cleanses the teeth from acetous concretions, stops the decomposition of their substance, sweetens the breath, stimulates the gums, and is the safest and best preparation of its class in existence.

THE cholera broke out on board ship Young Mechanic, at Calcutta, on the 8th of September, and the 9th, Captain McLoon, the second mate, and three sailors died. Five sailors who survived the day were sent to the hospital and subsequently recovered.

"A PERFECT GEM."—The new Children's Paper, "The Little Corporal," published by Alfred L. Sewall, in Chicago, Ill., is captivating all hearts. The price is only one dollar a year; sample copy ten cents.

THERE will be a discussion this evening at the Mercantile Library Rooms on the question: "Resolved, that the Fenian movement is neither premature or inadvisable."

Death of Judge Collamer.

The telegraph has announced the death of HON. JACOB COLLAMER, U. S. Senator from Vermont, at his residence in Woodstock, on Thursday evening, 9th inst. Mr. Collamer was born in Troy, N. Y., in 1792, but in his childhood his father removed to Burlington, Vt. He graduated at the University of Vermont in 1810, served as a subaltern in the early part of the last war with England, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1813; practiced till 1833, during which period he was several times elected as member of the State Legislature; from 1833 to 1841, he was Judge of the Supreme Court of Vermont. In 1843 he took his seat for the first time in the House of Representatives in Congress, and served in that capacity till 1849, when he was appointed Postmaster General by President Taylor, but resigned in 1850 on the death of the President.

He was reappointed to the Supreme Bench of his State and held the office till 1854, when he was elected to the United States Senate, which office he has held ever since. He has served as Chairman of important committees. He was an able, honest, incorruptible, patriotic statesman.

BY TELEGRAPH,

TO THE DAILY PRESS.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.

It is ascertained from an official source that the army of the United States has not been reduced so low as seems to have been supposed. Its full and available strength exceeds 180,000 men, of which half are on each side of the Mississippi river.

To-day the members of the late North Carolina convention and other gentlemen of that State, visited the President, when Hon. Mr. Reade, on behalf of the convention over which he had the honor to preside, presented for his favorable consideration certain of its proceedings in a lengthy address.

The President responded as follows:

Hon. Mr. Reade:—I receive from you with pleasure a copy of the proceedings of the convention of North Carolina. I reciprocate cordially the conciliatory spirit in which you have addressed me. The convention of North Carolina has done much and well towards restoring that State to her proper national relations; but something yet remains to be done to render that restoration immediately practicable,—an acceptation of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery throughout the United States by the legislature of the State of North Carolina, is, in my judgement, practically important to the successful restoration which is so much desired by all. Without answering specifically the questions you have proposed to me, it will be sufficient to say that my action must depend upon events, and that Mr. Holden will be again instructed to continue the exercise of his instructions as Provisional Governor, until he shall have been expressly relieved by orders to that effect.

The following is a copy of a telegram addressed to his Excellency B. F. Perry, Provisional Governor of South Carolina:

"Your letter of the 4th is just now received. While much has been done in South Carolina that is conducive of peace and restoration, the President still thinks it is impossible to anticipate events. He expects, therefore, you will continue to exercise the duties heretofore devolved upon you as Provisional Governor of South Carolina until you shall be relieved by his orders. He observes with regret, that neither the State convention nor the legislature has pronounced the debt and obligations contracted in the name of the State, for unconstitutional and even rebellious purposes to be void; he equally regrets that the State seems to decline the congressional amendment of the constitution of the United States abolishing slavery." I telegraphed to you yesterday as follows: "The President directs me to write to you that an early adoption of the congressional amendment to the constitution of the United States abolishing slavery by the South Carolina convention, is deemed peculiarly important and especially desirable with reference to the general situation of the Union. I have now only to say, that the President's opinion before expressed, remains unchanged.

(Signed,) WM. H. SEWARD.'

Mr. Schade again called on the President this forenoon to make a final effort to save Captain Wirz from the death penalty, but at that time unknown to him, the prisoner had been executed.

The President, however, could see no reason for changing the sentence, and stated that Mr. Schade was the only one who had made an earnest appeal in behalf of the prisoner.

When between 8 and 9 this forenoon Mr. Schade took leave of Wirz, the latter expressed his thanks for what he had done for him, and regretted it was not in his power to reward him. Mr. Schade said he trusted he would die like a man, to which Wirz replied: "It is hardly necessary to tell you that I intend to die like a man."

Mr. Schade said he was called upon by several persons last night, as was also Father Boyle, who communicated the information purporting to come from a member of the Cabinet, to the effect that if Wirz would acknowledge that Jeff Davis was connected with the atrocities at Andersonville, his sentence would be commuted. Although Mr. Schade did not place full confidence in the report, he considered it his duty to relate it to the prisoner at his last conference with him.

Capt. Wirz in reply said: "Mr. Schade, you know I always told you I did not know anything about Jeff Davis. He had no connection with me as to what was done at Andersonville, and if I knew he had I would not become a traitor against him or any one else to save my life." Among his last acts, Wirz addressed a letter to O. S. Baker, one of his counsel, in which he remarked that he had not said a word that be construed into a reflection upon him. He merely remarked that he had not solicited him as his counsel at first, but accepted his services cheerfully. He concluded as follows: "I will say again, as I said before, that I believe you have done all you could for me, and, therefore, accept my thanks, the thanks of a dying man."

The following was written by Wirz before mounting the gallows:

"Old Capitol Prison, Nov. 10, 1865.

MR. SCHADE—Dear Sir:—It is no doubt the last time I shall address myself to you. What I have said to you often, and often repeated, accept my thanks, my sincere, heartfelt thanks, for all you have done for me. May God reward you, I cannot. Still I have something more to ask of you, and I am confident that you will not refuse my dying request. Please help my poor family, my dear wife and children. War, cruel war, has swept everything from me, and to-day my wife and children are beggars. My life is demanded as an atonement. I am willing to give it; and I hope that after a while I will be judged differently from what I am now. If any one ought to come to the relief of my family, it is the people of the South, for whose sake I have sacrificed all. I know you will excuse me for troubling you again. Farewell, dear sir. May God bless you. Yours thankfully,

(Signed) H. WIRZ."

From telegrams and other official communications received by the Secretary of the Interior, from Maj. Gen. Curtis and the other Commissioners appointed by the President to negotiate treaties with the Indians of the Upper Missouri River, it appears that their exertions have been eminently successful. Treaties have been concluded with nine powerful tribes. The latest telegrams from Maj. Gen. Curtis state that information has been received from other powerful tribes, desiring to meet the Commissioners and treat for peace.

The negotiations with the tribes of the Upper Arkansas have not been less successful.—The department is advised by Gens. Kearney and Sanborn and their associates, of the conclusion by them of treaties with the Cheyennes, Arapahoes and Kiowas, numbering some 12,000 to 15,000 souls.

The prosecution in the case of Commodore Craven, before the Court Martial, closed yesterday. To-day the court was engaged in hearing the testimony for the defence of several officers who were under Commodore Craven's command at the time of the escape of the Stone wall.

The Sanitary Condition of New York to be Improved.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

The Commissioners of Health held a meeting this afternoon, Mayor Gunther presiding. The Mayor submitted a resolution that City Inspector be directed to assign to a suitable number of officers in his department, the duty of examining into the condition, in a sanitary point of view, of all places within the city, and make a report daily to the Mayor and Commissioners officially of the condition of all houses which, in their opinion, may be prejudicial to the public health, and also of all nuisances that may tend to engender or aggravate any pestilential disease. The resolution was adopted. It was also resolved to send a circular to the citizens, informing them of the best modes of preserving health.

Washington Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

The Commercial's Washington dispatch says it is suggested by leading politicians that an amendment, sanctioning the Union debt and ignoring the debts for the overthrow of the Union, be addded to the Constitution of the United States, and the Southern States be required to adopt before recognition.

Horace Greely was to have an interview with the President this forenoon.

The Post's Washington despatch says advices from the South show that the Union candidates generally are defeated.

A boiler attached to the convent Sacred Heart, on the Bloomingdale road, Manhattanville, exploded this forenoon, killing a man by the name of Fitzpatrick.

British Man-of-War blown up.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

Information has been received that the commander of the British war ship Bull Dog blew her up on the 25th ult. at Cape Haytien. The rebel Sulowane had taken by force some Haytiens under the protection of the British Consul. The commander of the Bull Dog asked satisfaction, and no reply being given, he opened fire on Fort Peckelet. The Fort replied, and the ship getting aground, was abandoned and blown up. It was reported the commander had sailed for Jamaica in one of President Jeffrard's boats. The state of affairs in the country was very unsettled.

Mills Destroyed by Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.

The Bancroft mills, between Media and Chester, with their contents, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss $50,000.

Declaration of War between Spain and Chili. Chilian Ports Blockaded by Spain—Further from Peru and Jamaica.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

By the arrival of the Ocean Queen we have Panama advices to the 31st ult. War had been declared between Spain and Chili, and all the ports of the latter are declared blockaded by the Spanish squadron since the 24th ult., ten days being allowed for vessels then in the port to clear. The Chilian Congress has authorized a loan of $20,000,000, and the executive has been invested with unlimited power to raise troops, procure ships, &c.

The diplomatic corps in Chili protest emphatically against the mode of blockade, the Admiral proposing to maintain it by means of cruisers.

The panic occasioned by the sudden rupture was unprecedented in Chili. Business was greatly prostrated.

The English line of steamers between Panama and Valparaiso received no passengers or freight for any point south of Bolivia. It is believed that the mails carried by these steamers will be received at Cabija by the English gunboats and conveyed along the Chilian coast. The U. S. sloop of war St. Mary's was at Valparaiso. Advices from the Republic of Bolivia state that the government was gaining victories over the Revolutionists. Further successes were anticipated.

The Ocean Queen brings 1,250,000 dollars in treasure. Disaffection has arisen among the Revolutionists of Peru. There is a prospect of all the bodies banding together to assist Chili against Spain.

The murder of Barrios in Central America is not strengthening the security of the Dueña Government. Foreign newspapers are cautioned against comments on his death, which will be suppressed by the Government.

There is no news of importance from the Isthmus. It has been visited by a terrible gale. The improvement of the cemetery for the interment of foreigners is progressing favorably.

The Panama Star and Herald of Oct. 31st gives further particulars of the insurrections among the blacks of Jamaica, gleaned from Jamaica papers.

George W. Gordon, of Kingston, the principal mover of the insurrection, and Paul Boyle, the leader, had been caught, and were being tried by a court martial. Rev. S. J. H. Cole and Joe Roach, two of the most prominent instigators, were also arrested, together with most of the leading men in the movement.

The Maroons of the island are brave, true and loyal men, and have done all in their power to save lives and quell the insurrection.

The outrages committed find no parallel The evidence found upon some of the prisoners show the intention of the insurrectionists to have been to spare no white people, but to slaughter all indiscriminately.

The rebels are dealt with in a most summary way. The capture of their leader has dispirited them, and many are surrendering.

The Watchman office is closed, and those connected with it are arrested on charge of publishing seditious sentiments.

Her British Majesty's store ship Urgent was dispatched to Barbadoes for troops. No apprehension was felt of much further trouble.

Affray at Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 10.

An encounter occurred to-day near the City Hotel, between Dr. Maddox, of Farquier county, and Maj. Dixon, paymaster in the U. S. army. Maj. Dixon received a ball in the side, penetrating the bowels. His speedy death is pronounced certain. Dr. Maddox has surrendered himself to the civil authorities.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 10.

Nine counties heard from officially, give Holden for Governor 3,893, and Worth 5,439 votes. Worth's friends claim his election, though Holden's friends do not give it up, contending his majority in the west will overcome the majority against him in the east.

Poetry.

The Song of a Slater.

Upon the church roof perched so high,
The white clouds are my company;
Far down below their shadows fly
Across the flowing grain;
And through the belfry, in and out,
A cheery wind is making rout;
It blows the pigeons all about,
And flutters them amain.

Down there, beyond the plum tree row,
There is a garden-wall I know,
Where vines with purple grapes aglow
Encase a garden door.
See from that nook of leafy shade
Into the sunlight ste s a maid;
I hold my breath, as half afraid
Of seeing her no more.

But on she glides, her sunny head
Now gleams above a flower bed;
Now veiled in dappled dimness shed
Through lacing branches glows;
One moment turns her face this way,
One moment brightens all the day;
Then into darkness glows.

And there beyond, my own home lies;
My little brothers' voices rise
Among the trees; and mother's eyes
I know are turned this way;
A hundred happy homes lie round,
And in them all my friends are found;
What more is in this garden ground,
I have no heart to say.

Tell your Mother.

I wonder how many girls tell their mother everything? Not those "young ladies" who, going to and from school, smile, bow and exchange notes and cartes de visite with young men who make fun of you and your pictures, speaking in a way that would make your cheeks burn with shame, if you heard it. All this, most incredulous and romantic young ladies, they will do, although they gaze at your fresh young faces admiringly, and send or give you charming verses and bouquets. No matter what "other girls do;" don't you do it. School girl flirtations may end disastrously, as many a foolish wretched young girl could tell you. Your yearning for some one to love, is a great need of every woman's heart. But there is time for everything. Don't let the bloom and freshness of your heart be brushed off in silly flirtations. Render yourself truly intelligent. And, above all, tell your mother everything. "Fun" in your dictionary would be indiscretion in hers. It would do no harm to look and see. Never be ashamed to tell her who should be your best friend and confidant, all you think and feel. It is very strange, that so many young girls will tell every person before "mother" that which is most important that she should know. It is very sad that indifferent persons should know more about her own fair young daughters than she herself.—Fanny Fern.

The bill of fare at a Paris restaurant announces for the benefit of English patrons, that there can be obtained there, "Lobster, with sauce of sharpness, according to bigness" —"Soup, lean, with sorrel"—Beefsteak with tumbled potatoes—"Lamb's epigrammes, with small peace."

"It is well to leave something for those who come after us," as the gentleman said who threw a barrel in the way of a constable who was chasing him.

THE GREAT

New England Remedy.

Dr. J. W. POLAND'S

WHITE PINE

COMPOUND,

Is now offered to the afflicted throughout the country, after having been proved by the test of eleven years, in the New England States, where its merits have become as well known as the tree from which, in part, it derives its virtues.

THE WHITE PINE COMPOUND

CURES

Sore Throat, Colds, Coughs, Diphtheria, Bronchitis Spitting of Blood, and Pulmonary Affections generally. It is a remarkable remedy for Kidney Complaints, Diabetes, Difficulty of Voiding Urine, Bleeding from the Kidneys and Bladder, Gravel, and other complaints. For Piles and Scurvy, it will be found very valuable.

Give it a trial if you would learn the value of a good and tried medicine. It is pleasant, safe and sure.

The White Pine Compound, advertised at length in our columns, is not only as to its name inviting, but is a highly approved medicine. Dr. J. W. Poland, the inventor, has the confidence of many who know him, a confidence which he enjoyed while laboring usefully many years as a Baptist minister. His experience as a sufferer led to him to make experiments which issued in his medical discovery.—Boston Watchman and Reflector.

The Editor of the Manchester Daily and Weekly Mirror, in a leader of the Daily, thus writes of the Compound.

"The White Pine Compound is advertised at much length in our columns, and we are happy to learn that the demand for it is increasing beyond all previous expectations. If the very best medicine for Coughs and Colds we know of, and no family that has once used it will be without it. We speak from our own knowledge, it is sure to kill a cold and pleasant as sure. The greatest inventions come by accident, and it is singular that the White Pine Compound made for Colds and Coughs should prove to be the greatest remedy for kidney difficulties known. But so it is.—We cannot doubt it, so many testimonials come to us from well-known men. Besides the character of Dr. Poland is such, that we know that he will not countenance what is wrong. For years a Baptist clergyman, studying medicine to find remedies for his ailments, with a delicate consumptive look, standing with one foot upon the grave, he made the discovery which has saved himself, and called out from hundreds of others, the strongest testimonials possible. We have known Dr. Poland for years, and never knew a more conscientious, honest, upright man, and are glad to state that we believe whatever he says about his White Pine Compound."

Sold by all Druggists, and dealers in medicine generally.

Policies Issued on Life, Ten Year Non-Forfeiture, and Ten Year Non-Forfeiture Endowment Plans.

Losses Promptly Settled.

THIS COMPANY HAS NEVER LITIGATED A CLAIM!

DIVIDENDS ANNUAL.

THE Dividends of this Company are exactly what they appear to be, being payable at the close of each year, in cash when the Premium is paid in cash, and in cancellation of notes when notes are given.—On the payment of EACH renewal, commencing with the FIRST, a Dividend is PAID, thus aiding the insured in meeting their payments by an immediate return. The ADVANTAGES of this system, over that of scrip Dividends without interest payable in four or five years, or "on notice of the Directors," are obvious. No other Company has ever paid a Dividend in this way. The Dividends are equal to those of any Life Company.

Those intending to effect new insurance, or increase existing policies, will do well to examine the merits of this Company. Information from official sources for the past or preceding years cheerfully given.

TWO REASONS

WHY THOSE WHO

"Act Wisely"

SHOULD INSURE THEIR LIVES

—IN THE—

MUTUAL BENEFIT

Life Insurance Co.

1st.—IT IS THE SAFEST;

Because its net Assets exceed those of any Life Insurance Co. in the United States.

2nd.—IT IS THE CHEAPEST;

Because it is paying back to its members larger Dividends, and more of them, than any other Co. in the United States.

The necessary result is, IT COSTS LESS to insure in it than in any other.

☞ Comparisons will Confirm these Facts.

Those who really wish to know all the facts, vitally important to their own interests before paying out their money, are invited to call at this office, where every facility is cheerfully offered to understand the whole subject.

MARINE INSURANCE.

Marine Insurance on HULLS, CARGOES, and FREIGHTS, TAKEN SPECIALLY or upon OPEN POLICIES. The public will find it for their interest to give us a call.

New York Estimate of the International.

As an indication of how this Company stands AT HOME, we take the City business of 105 Companies and Agencies, named in the Treasurer's Report of the New York Board of Fire Insurance Companies, for 1864, and find that THE INTERNATIONAL RECEIVED MORE PREMIUMS IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY, EXCEPT ONE! This list includes the English Companies and the Hartford Agencies, all of which fall far behind the International in point of patronage in this City.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

This is a most gratifying and remarkable fact, best understood by those who best know the real merits and skillful management of this sterling corporation, which thus within two years takes the lead of scores of other Companies that have been established from a quarter to a half century.
